

PMCC
Your Trusted Project Partner

PROJECT MANAGEMENT

SERVICE FLYER

Thoughtful & Modernised Project Delivery

PMCC covers the entire project life cycle for project management based on international standards with highly experienced individuals specifically selected for your project. We tailor the project life cycle and the processes from the very start until the completion of the project for the best value delivery considering the constraints at hand.

We apply the most suitable guidelines based on the nature of the project, the stakeholders needs and budget available and deliver the project with a hybrid solution adapting the external and internal influences throughout the project phases. We have engineering and commercial understanding combined with leadership to either take on a complete PMC role or individual contributions for specific phases, work packages or the entire project life cycle.

From document writing to cover contractual deliverables to creating complex concepts for project execution and stakeholder management to obtain approvals and project control to provide accurate reporting is in the project management menu of PMCC and the highly educated and experienced team.

We love this work because we like getting projects done and deliver outcomes for the greater good as a team with our Clients, Partners, Owners and other project stakeholders.
