Robust and Strategised Contractual Protections

Construction Contracts

PMCC services for construction contracts start at the very beginning of contract formation by providing advice on the best form of contract to use in order to meet with client requirements. From this early advice we assist in contract reviews to deal with specific project or client requirements to ensure that construction contracts are robust in nature and protect the key interests that the client has. In the event that there is another party forming the contract and issuing for review, PMCC will provide contract review services of the same, identifying possible amendments and the key risks, rights and obligations of the Contract.

Upon award PMCC will provide contract administration services for the project and issue necessary letters / notices to ensure that rights are maintained and the obligations are confirmed.

Construction Claims

As a specialised construction claims consultant, we prepare well strategized and considered contract claims to ensure that our clients take the best route forward and provide the best opportunity to deliver a successful result from construction claims. Our claims include for extensions of time (EOT), loss and expense, disruption, loss of profit and acceleration measures.

Our delivered product is clear, well thought out and provides for a robust and evidenced construction claim product for negotiations and discussions with opposing parties.

In terms of independent roles PMCC provided Independent Expert Witness services on Quantum and Delay for adjudications, arbitrations, winding up orders and civil legal proceedings during formal disputes.
